

Will You Be Our Valentine? ❤️ | & Celebrate Black History With Us

HAPPY
VALENTINE'S
DAY ❤️

Message from the Executive Director

A Love Letter to Our Students & Supporters

Remember when we used to exchange little Valentine's Day cards in school? Some were funny, some were sweet, and some were just a way to make sure no one was left out. At Elevate Jacksonville, we believe in that same spirit—showing love, support, and encouragement to every student we serve.

This Valentine's Day, we're reminded that love isn't just about candy and cards—it's about showing up, making an impact, and investing in our students' futures. So, consider this our Valentine to you, our Elevate family. Thank you for your continued love and support.

And since February is also Black History Month, we want to take a moment to celebrate the love, resilience, and brilliance of Black leaders who have paved the way in education, innovation, and social change. Keep reading for a special Black History fact that you can share with someone today!

Black History Month Moment:

Did you know?

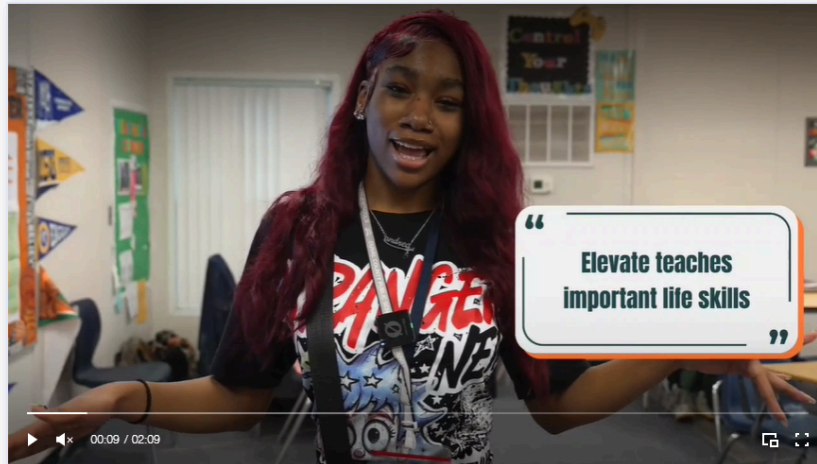

Before Ruby Bridges became the first Black student to integrate an all-white school in Louisiana in 1960, her mother told her something powerful: "Remember, if you get afraid, say a prayer. God is always with you." At just six years old, she walked into history with courage, shaping the future of education.

At Elevate Jacksonville, we believe that same courage and resilience is in every student we serve. Let's continue investing in their future.
